

SC/ST CELL

- Celebration of Jan Jatiya Gaurav Diwas – (15.11.2025) – This event has to be added to a new tab under Mandatory Disclosures - SC/ST Cell - Janjatiya Gaurav Diwas is observed annually on November 15 to honour the rich cultural heritage, courage, and contributions of India's tribal communities. The day marks the birth anniversary of Birsa Munda, who led movements against British rule and fought for the rights and dignity of tribal people. The SC/ST Cell, in association with the NSS Unit, celebrated the occasion to commemorate his 150th Birth Anniversary through a special programme for first-year law students. The event was presided over by Prof. Dr. Anjina Reddy K. R., Principal, MKPM RVILS, and Ms. Bhavana C., NSS Programme Officer and IQAC Coordinator, was also present at the event. This event highlighted the transformative role of tribal heroes in shaping India's social and political history. Speakers emphasized Birsa Munda's leadership in the Ulgulan movement and his efforts to protect tribal identity and revive indigenous traditions. The contributions of Komaram Bheem were also remembered for mobilizing tribal communities against oppression and inspiring unity and self-determination. The celebration reinforced the values of inclusivity, social justice, and respect for indigenous heritage among students.

The poster features a central illustration of Birsa Munda, a tribal leader, holding a bow and arrow. The background is a warm, golden-yellow gradient with bokeh light effects. Logos for MKPM RV Institute of Legal Studies and the National Service Scheme (NSS) are positioned at the top corners. The text is centered and uses a mix of bold and regular fonts to convey the event details.
